

Christopher Mesecar

President, The Art Institute of Raleigh-Durham

Chris joins The Art Institute of Raleigh – Durham after spending three years as the Senior Director of Admissions at The Art Institute of Indianapolis. Chris started with The Art Institutes in 1996, and in his career with Ai has held roles such as: High School Representative for The Art Institute of Philadelphia, Senior Associate Director of High School Programs for The Art Institutes, Chicago Illinois, Associate Director of Admissions – Training and Special Projects, The Illinois Institute of Art – Chicago and 2nd Director of Admissions for The Art Institute of Colorado. Chris holds a Bachelor’s degree from Wabash College and Masters in Educational Leadership from Argosy University. As an Ai veteran, Chris believes in our schools, believes in the education we provide to our students, and believes in the overall mission of The Art Institute of Raleigh – Durham.